CORNELL UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN

1942-43

To the President of the University:

SIR: I have the honor to submit the report of the Librarian of the University Library for the year ended June 30, 1943.

We are in the second year of our country's participation in the World War. The limitations on the acquisition of continental European books are the same as in the first year. The number of accessions is slightly less than it was last year. But the effect of the war is more noticeable in the staff. It is becoming increasingly difficult to secure mechanical or manual labor, and the catalogue staff has been seriously affected.

Even though the annual increase in the number of books has been slightly reduced, the problem of housing continues to be pressing, literally as well as figuratively. May it be permitted to repeat verbatim the words of the report of last year which deal with this problem. "The Librarian cannot refrain from pointing out once more the wisdom of preparing for this contingency before the breaking point is reached, and he ventures to repeat his hope that adequate working quarters and facilities may be provided for a loyal staff that had been handicapped by lack of room even before the last addition was made to the stack space. Unless an entirely new library building can be planned for, the logical remedy would be an added wing on the Northwest corner of the present building, somewhat like the extension erected on the Southwest corner in 1936-37." In the fervor of post-war planning the proper functioning of this vital organ in the University's life and activity should not be overlooked.

STAFF

Mr. Eric T. Schuler, cataloguer, resigned in April, 1943, to accept a position in the Office of Strategic Services in Washington. His successor has not yet been named. Mrs. H. Rosalind Speed gives half-time as a cataloguer instead of full time. Miss Barbara Veit, assistant in the Readers Division, resigned in May, 1943. She is succeeded by Miss Elizabeth Timmerman.

ACCESSIONS

The total amount expended for books, periodicals, and binding, according to Miss Ingersoll, Supervisor of Accessions, was $30,805 as against $36,961 in the preceding year. The total number of volumes added on the University Library's Accession books was 14,151 as against 14,541 last year. Of these 11,194 were for the general Library, while 2,957 went to special collections and to department and college libraries. For the General Library, books to the number of 5817 were purchased, 5377 were received by gift or exchange.

GIFTS

The donors list this year includes 619 names. Of the books added to the general collection 5,377 were gifts or exchanges; 5,817 were purchased. By gift or exchange we received 1,347 periodicals, and we subscribed to 1,053. Many periodicals were the gifts of their publishers or editors; others were presented by learned societies, foundations, corporations, and government agencies, both foreign and domestic. To all of these we offer our warmest thanks.

The Cornell Library Associates, which began their activities last year have continued their good work. The officers this year are Professor H. B. Adelmann, President, Dr. Nellis M. Crouse, Secretary, and Professor Paul W. Gates, Treasurer. They are aided by an advisory board of twelve members who represent the various library interests on the campus. A special and very successful appeal was made to the members of the Faculty, who responded with donations amounting to more than $1,000. Among the books presented by the Library Associates to the University Library this year were 30 volumes of the publications of the Champlain Society, Henry E. Dresser's "A History of the Birds of Europe," (London, 1871-1896), and Ernst H. Zimmermann's "Vorkarolingische Miniaturen" (Berlin, 1916).

Just before the end of the year the University Library lost one of its oldest and most loyal friends. Mr. William F. E. Gurley died in Chicago in the last week in June. One of his last acts was to increase the Anna S. Gurley Memorial Book Endowment from $1,200 to $2,000. The income of this endowment is used for books in the field of drama. Mr. and Mrs. Gurley have been constant donors of books aside from those provided by the endowment.

A new endowment was established this year by Dr. William H. Glasson, Dean Emeritus of the Graduate School of Duke University. Dr. Glasson, an alumnus of Cornell of the Class of 1896, presented $500 as an endowment for "philately, numismatics, and irredeemable paper money."

Mrs. Louise F. Pierce and Mr. Elmer M. Johnson and Mr. John R. Armstrong have repeated their cash donations of former years, and from Mr. Edward R. Martinez-Ybor we received a welcome gift of $200 for general use.

As in former years Mr. Victor Emanuel has been generous in providing additions to the Wordsworth Collection. His donations this year included fifteen autograph letters of William Wordsworth and Mary Wordsworth, and one autograph letter of Grace Darling. In addition to this, Mr. Emanuel provided funds for the publication of Professor Leslie N. Broughton's edition of "Some Letters of the Wordsworth Family" and also of Professor Broughton's Supplement to the catalogue of "The Wordsworth Collection."

The joint donation of Mrs. Charles Rubens and Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Weil, which came to us through the kind offices of Professor Harry Caplan, brought to the Library one of the most significant additions of recent years. It consisted of a collection of fifty-five original fifteenth century woodcuts published by W. L. Schreiber under the title of "Woodcuts from Books of the 15th Century" (Munich, 1929) and three large collections containing, in all, 300 original leaves from incunabula, collected by Konrad Haebler: The German Incunabula, The Italian Incunabula, and The Westeuropean Incunabula (Munich, 1927-1928). Added to these were four complete incunabula, thirteen miscellaneous volumes and pamphlets, and one sixteenth century leather binding with gold tooling.

Through the efforts of Professor A. H. Wright, we secured by gift or exchange ninety-nine volumes of the "Connecticut Register and Manual" (1830-1942), forty-three volumes of the "Rhode Island Annual" (1867-1942), and eighty-nine volumes of the "Massachusetts Vital Records."

Miss Mary Hull continued the series of gifts, mostly from the library of the late Professor Charles H. Hull, with 227 books, pamphlets, maps and documents, also one incunabulum.

From the Estate of Harry H. Pratt, through Surrogate George W. Pratt, we received the Corning Daily Journal 1891-1915, the Corning Weekly Journal 1851-1891, the Elmira Daily Advertiser 1868-1870, and the New York Weekly Tribune 1862-April 7, 1866. From the Estate of Bessie Beahan came about 500 miscellaneous books and pamphlets; from Mr. Woodford Patterson 231 volumes; from Mr. Howard S. Levie 154 volumes; from Miss Laura MacElroy (through Professor Paul W. Gates) 691 miscellaneous numbers of magazines and 459 numbers of local newspapers; from Mrs. George B. Upton (through Professor A. H. Wright) 50 volumes; from Mr. John Stambaugh, III, '45, from the library of his father John T. Stambaugh, '84, founder of the John Stambaugh Professorship, 207 volumes; from Mrs. Richard E. Williams 241 volumes; from Professor Cony Sturgis 26 volumes; Miss Charlotte Howe 26 volumes.

As in past years Mr. Carter R. Kingsley has not only given us books in his own name, but has been very helpful in persuading others to bestow gifts on the Library. Mr. James McCall gave us the United States Magazine for August 1779 and Beers' Almanac for 1825 as well as other books. Mr. Donald C. Kerr donated the Boston Gazette and Country Journal, No. 787, for May 7, 1770. Mr. R. W. G. Vail, '14, Librarian of the New York State Library, made a personal gift of four autograph letters (Goldwin Smith, Andrew D. White, Hiram Corson) as well as books. From Mrs. H. D. Reed we received the order books of the Ithaca firm of Andrus and Church from September, 1885 to August, 1889, and several volumes of The Crank, a Cornell engineering journal (1887-1892), and 83 various Ithaca imprints; from Mr. Maurice W. Nixon, volumes 7 to 26 of Fortune.

In the donors list are included the names of eighty-one members of the teaching staff and of the administration of the University.

For the loyal support of these benefactors we are especially grateful. Some of them like Professor Walter F. Willcox are donors of long standing, who have always been generous. Professor Victor Lange gave us 17 items; Professor R. S. Hosmer, fifteen; Professor Carl Becker, fourteen. From Professor G. T. Bergin we received twelve volumes of Italica (1926-1939); from Dr. R. T. Clausen, volumes 1-6 of the Bulletin of the South Carolina Academy of Science; from Professor H. P. Weld 34 books on gardening from the library of the late Mrs. H. P. Weld. In addition to 64 miscellaneous items Professor A. H. Wright presented us with a generous supply of his recent "Studies in History", nos. 1-4, which we are permitted to use for exchange. This is a type of gift which is not common, but it is particularly useful to a library which does not have a varied series of university publications to use for this purpose.

OTTO KINKELDEY,
Librarian.
